

THE REYNOLDS FOUNDATION FACULTY DEVELOPMENT SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

MOUNT SINAI SCHOOL OF MEDICINE,
BROOKDALE DEPARTMENT OF GERIATRICS AND PALLIATIVE MEDICINE

DO I QUALIFY?

MOUNT SINAI
SCHOOL OF
MEDICINE

SCHOLARSHIPS TO MSSM INTENSIVE CME UPDATE, BOARD REVIEW AND FACULTY DEVELOPMENT COURSE

September 17 – 21, 2011
New York City

- Ten full-tuition scholarships available (Value: $995).
- Mentorship program for Intensive CME Scholars Faculty Development course:
  - 24 plenary sessions and 16 small group, case-based workshops from among 96 offered.
  - Identify and implement an intervention at home institution.
  - During CME course, participate in:
    - Half-day pre course (September 17th) on observation skills, teaching skills, formulating and identifying goals and objectives for intervention project.
    - Daily 2-hour session on teaching and assessment skills.
    - Final day: Revise plans and prepare to implement project.
- Eligibility: Competitive application. Limited to non-geriatrician faculty, fellows, or upcoming chief residents. Preference to academic medical centers without Reynolds Foundation funding.
- Mentorship:
  - Each participant will be paired with 1 of 2 MSSM faculty mentors.
  - Mentors will review participants' progress and provide follow-up.

Increase Your Skills in Teaching, Assessment,
Leadership,

Project Development and Implementation . . .
and Geriatrics

Mount Sinai School of Medicine

Brookdale Department of Geriatrics and Palliative
Medicine

*#1 geriatrics education program and hospital-
U.S. News & World Report
2011*

“CTRL AND CLICK”
TO FOLLOW LINK

APPLICATION